Day beginning at Sunrise

On the day you were born, you not only gained the magic of your horoscope, you also gained the myths and meanings of a sky full of stars. Not all the stars, just those that formed links to your natal planets via what is called parans. By considering the star parans in your life you will be encountering a whole new (though very old) layer of myth and meaning to your chart. Welcome to your Stars.

Each star has a unique and wonderful pattern of visibility for any given place on earth. Some stars will be visible for a period in the night, yet later in the year they will fail to appear and be lost to the view of stargazers. Others will also rise or set at night, but instead of disappearing from view altogether, they will lose touch with the horizon and spend the whole night being visible in the starry sky. Yet both these sorts of stars will eventually return to rising or setting during the night, with each individual star doing so on a particular date of the year. However, there is also another set of stars that do not partake of this dance and are always visible, and never sink beneath the horizon, spending every night circling around the pole.

To the Egyptians the stars were deities and so these annual star patterns had strong religious significance. The never setting circumpolar stars were considered to be the Immortals for these are the deities that never died, the stars that never set. But the stars that rose or set during the course of the year were the deities who moved between the world of humans and the world of the Immortals, or the Underworld, the place the stars journeyed when they disappeared from view. These were the deities who communed with humans, the deities who were approachable and open to prayer.

Such stars would, according to their unique rhythm, reappear at set calendar dates. If they reappeared from the Underworld, they would rise just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Rising Star. This star was considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the annual cycle re-emerged from the Underworld. Or, if the star came back from the realm of the Immortals and once again touched the earth, they would appear to set just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Setting Star. This star can also be considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the cycle appears to descend from the Immortal realm. So important were these times of the return of a star that the Egyptians based their religious calendar around such events and built temples designed to capture the returning star's light onto the altar of the deity.

Thus, there will be at least two stars that rule the period of time and place in which you were born. One star will be the most recent to have returned from the Underworld and the other would have returned from the realm of the Immortals. Both stars have significance for you. Occasionally more than one star can return on the same day so some people will have more than one Heliacal Rising Star or more than one Heliacal Setting Star. These stars, and their meanings, are guiding principles in your life.

Your Heliacal Rising Star is:

Antares - The Heart of the Scorpion

To be driven by passion and obsession

This is the star that has been walking the path of the underworld and has now emerged to be visible in the world of humans. This star, the Heliacal Rising Star, is the star that you were born under and it will bear gifts to you from the land of your past, your family and your genetics. It is your gift, the jewel or the treasure, which your ancestors handed you at your birth. This star is a theme in your life; helps to build your philosophies, and can at times take on a vocational pulse.

This star is the Heart of the Scorpion and is one of the great stars of the sky. It is a Royal Star of Persia and was known as the Watcher of the West. To the Persians this star was the god of the dead, Yima. Being a Royal Star, Antares offers great success, worldly or otherwise. However, it also indicates that you may well cause your own undoing. The natural desire of this star is to generate success by going through a cleansing life-and-death experience. With Antares in such an important position on the day of your birth, you will be so strongly focused that some would consider you obsessive. There is a potential to be abrasive or ruthless as you pursue your goal, and you will need to balance your own obsessiveness with recognition that others may not be as driven as yourself.

Your Heliacal Setting Star is:

Algol - The Head of the Beast

Led by one's passions, to create or destroy

This is the star that has been living amongst the immortals of the pole, and has now, at the time of your birth, returned to earth. This star is known as the Heliacal Setting Star and is a gift or treasure given to you from your spirit, from your immortal soul, from your daemon. This star represents goals that you reach for; vocations that motivate you, and the spiritual pathways that you seek. This star represents your doorway to the immortals, or your journey towards a fulfilled life. That which gives you the greatest happiness.

Algol was called Ras al Ghul by the Arabs, which means the Head of the Demon, and they considered this female demon to be the wife of the Devil. Ptolemy labelled the star as 'the bright one of those in the Gorgon's head'. The Chinese called the star Tseih She meaning Piled-up Corpses. In Talmudic Law she is the first wife of Adam, Lilith, who left him because she refused to be submissive to his needs. Lilith then fled Paradise and became a demon of the wind. She was considered a curse, as she contained sexual pleasure and was the cause of all male wet dreams. The resulting impact in the Jewish, Moslem and Christian cultures was the suppression of all male sexual pleasure, which then led to the oppression of the sexual woman. Algol thus embodied everything that men feared in the feminine. She is not the mother face of the goddess but rather the passionate lover or the whore. She is female kundalini energy. Algol is the wild, raw, frightening face of the outraged feminine, which has been labelled as demonic or simply as evil. This star contains immense female passion and power. It is the power of the feminine, or the potential power of Mother Nature, strong but not to be called evil. This star represents a strong consuming passion, which may devour you with anger and rage. If one can contain a conscious or unconscious compulsion to take revenge, and focus that passion into a more productive outcome, Algol is one of the most powerful stars in the sky. Being born on the day that Algol is in such an important position, your being will be inflamed with this passion and intensity. At the very least this will imply that you are a person who will not tolerate injustice. In addition, because you can handle intensity, you will encounter these sorts of situations throughout your life, either suffering personal injustices, or fighting for what you feel is correct. Algol as your life-beacon will lead you upon an emotional and intense path.

Stars that were on the Angles at the moment of your birth...

At the moment you were born the following star or stars were on your Cross of Matter. This is the cross made up of your Ascendant/Descendant axis and your MC/IC axis. Known also as the angles of a chart, these four points are your connection between the spiritual, or cosmic, world and the physical world in which you live. A star on one of the angles acts like a filter or lens between the world of your spirit and the material world, the world of form, shape and expression. Such a star will have a strong influence on your lifestyle, and the daily unfolding of your physical, emotional, and financial life.

Markab - The Saddle of Pegasus

Physical and mental endurance and reliability

Markab is the saddle of Pegasus and represents great solidness and reliability, a point of steadiness or the power to maintain stability under pressure. This could be a beneficial contact, giving you leadership skills and the ability to handle crises; or it could twist the other way, and manifest as a certain stubbornness and a refusal to move or consider other options. With Markab on the angles at the moment of your birth, then your approach to problems or life's ups and downs is to stand firm as a rock. This could lead to stubbornness, but also it can give you great endurance.

Stars that are linked to your planets...

Stars form links or parans to your planets, via the angles of your chart. If a planet is at a key point of its daily movement, either Rising, Setting, Culminating or At the Bottom of the Sky, and at the same time a star is also at one of these key points in its daily movement, then the star is in paran to that planet. The angle that the star occupies also tells us the period of your life when the mythology of the star will be expressed. If the star is rising then it affects your youth, if culminating then the prime of your life, if setting the latter years, and if lower the star is a foundation, or summary statement concerning your life.

Only the visible planets are used in this report, as the outer planets are generational and do not have meaning at a personal level.

Some Stars are at a Phase of Curtailed Passage

Some of the stars that are in paran to your natal planets are in a stage of their cycle known as Curtailed Passage. These stars were visible in the night sky at sunset, and were still visible in the night sky at sunrise. These stars have therefore lost contact with the earth, as they are not seen to touch the horizon during the course of the night and are thought to be walking with the immortals, and are not open to the prayers of humans. In this situation the stars seem to express themselves in a more fated manner, and you will find it more difficult to deal with, or embrace, the themes of these stars in your life. Therefore, in this report, any star that is of Curtailed Passage should be read with these emphases in mind.

Stars of Your Youth

All of these stars are rising as they form a paran to a planet. Therefore, all of these stars will express themselves in your childhood and young adulthood. Simply put, these stars influence the first third of your life. With these stars shaping your childhood, they will have an impact on your parents, schooling and social skills, and in that manner can have a large impact on your whole life. These stars are:

Alcyone - The Pleiades, The Third Eye, with Mars  in Youth

The critic, the commentator on social ills

This star seeks the inner eye, the third eye. There is a very strong desire to seek inner knowledge. Alcyone is also linked to the Fates and the judgement of the dead. This can manifest in an individual's life as ruthlessness when dealing with those who have not met certain standards. Thus Alcyone is a strong, powerful star indicating visions and mystical abilities, but also a potential for ruthlessness or judgemental anger. With Alcyone in paran to your Mars, your actions and what motivates you will be driven by the social ills or imbalances in the world around you. In your early years this star's expression may have shown in your own suffering at the hands of others, or being very angry at things that you could not change. However, if Alcyone is active in your adult years, then you will be motivated to be involved with social issues, not in a passive way, but really wanting to take physical action in order to try to make a difference. Yet Alcyone also contains rash or harsh action, and you will need to guard against others taking harsh action against you, or indeed urges in yourself to take action against others.

Capella - The Charioteer, with Venus ♀ in Youth

To challenge the values of society

Curtailed Passage

That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

Capella in most charts lends a nurturing but free-spirited flavour. The star is linked to Artemis the Greek goddess of the hunt and her Roman counterpart Diana. It is the concept of the fertile goddess, but she is linked to the horse and therefore embodies action and movement. With Capella in paran to your Venus it will add independence and the seeking of freedom to your orientation to society's rules and structures. You will strive to be free of the restrictions that society can place on a person, and will be inclined to act outside of the social norm, or even to challenge the unspoken rules of society. You will seek a different style of relationship, and a different attitude to commitment, because this combination will see you struggling to deal with your need for family and support versus your strong desire for independence. Learn to express your independent nature in an appropriate cause, thereby ensuring a more settled domestic life.

Scheat - The Intellect, with Mars ♂ in Youth

A physically confident person, or a gifted inventor

With Scheat in paran with your Mars you are seen as a person who is confident of themselves and their physical ability. For this star is linked to the concept of the

Natal Star Report - Wright Brothers Flight

Great Square of Pegasus. The square, in ancient cultures, represented the intellect and new thought, with its opposite, intuition, being symbolised as circular. Scheat appears to have captured the very essence of this concept, and implies a love of intellect and the challenge of logic. When in paran to Mars, this individual way of thinking is focused into your physical actions. This is an athletic stellar combination, talking of physical skill, bravery and physical ability. It is a physical intelligence. You may use this in many different ways, but whenever you focus your energy onto any subject you will activate this physical gift.

Stars of Your Prime

All of these stars are culminating as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your adulthood, or the second third of your life. These stars will therefore have an impact on your career, adult relationships, children and financial prosperity. In addition, some of these stars will be doubly emphasised as they will not only be present and active in the prime of your life but will be shown, later in this report, to be coming from a deeper source, coming from the foundation stones of your being. These stars are discussed here, as it is in this period of your life that you first encounter their impact they will, however, simply grow stronger as your life unfolds. The stars that are active in the prime of your life are:

Alphecca - A Garland of Flowers, with Mars  in Prime

A hard life, but the lessons learned lead to success

This star is the concept of a woman's crown: possible achievements in a quiet, passive way. Yet this crown of flowers also contains thorns and, although there are advancements through life which are not necessarily through one's own efforts, there is always a price to pay. With Alphecca in paran to your Mars, your motivation and success comes from difficult circumstances. For you life is not meant to be easy, for your potential success lies in the wisdom of examining failure or hurdles in life. The path may be rocky but if you can learn from these challenges then Alphecca promises a gift, a talent or a skill.

Deneb Adige - The Shaman's Star, with Saturn  in Prime

To act against the tide of society's expectations

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

This is a very subtle star. It contains the strength and hostility of the swan, while at the same time holds within its symbolism the mystic, transcendental qualities embodied in shamanistic legends of the creation of the World Egg. Deneb Adige can express itself in both the aggressive and the spiritual sides of your life, for the star seems to have a duality about it: it is equally the strong fighting bird and the symbol of the swan god. The Egyptians saw this star as the exit of the birth canal of Nut, the great starry sky goddess. Through her birth canal the Sun, Ra, was born anew every winter solstice. So in many ways this star is linked to the hero's journey. Deneb Adige in paran with Saturn will take the noble warrior energy of Deneb Adige and cement it to the Saturnian desire for structure. Thus you will find yourself not only wanting to become involved in noble challenges, you will also want to make a difference; to leave a lasting mark; to physically help your chosen cause. The hard, even at times seemingly impossible, obstacles you will encounter in the pursuit of your cause will only add more fuel to the fire of your intentions.

Polaris - The Pole Star, with Mars  in Prime

Strong sexual or physical drives

Circumpolar

At this latitude this star is circumpolar and therefore never touches the earth. Thus you should delineate the meaning in a more forceful, or black and white manner. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star.

When Mars is involved with a star, it combines your motivation and drive with the themes of the star. Linked with Polaris, which has a long history as the current pole star, used for centuries by sailors of both sea and desert as a guide, it will add a single mindedness to what you put your energy into, what motivates you, what drives you forward with your life. This star never rises or sets, so the only way it can be in paran with your Mars is via culmination and thereby it has a single expression: on your career, and your journey of life. Such a strong focus when combined with Mars emphasises your libido, as well as your passion for life. This can make you vital and alive, and full of energy, with a strong desire to engage fully in every day of your life; but it can also make you sexually obsessive. Moderation is your keyword. Allow yourself to be strongly focused, but not to be blinded to the needs of others.

 Ras Alhague - The Healer, with Jupiter 4 in Prime

A person who uses knowledge and optimism to expand the lives of others

With Ras Alhague in paran with your Jupiter you are a person who finds that growth occurs for you if you are a disperser of knowledge and wisdom. Ras Alhague belongs to Ophiuchus, the great healer in the sky who holds a serpent in his hands. Ophiuchus therefore represents, not only healing, but the knowledge of healing. When in paran with Jupiter, the ancient teacher and priest, the combination creates an optimistic desire for growth and a desire to share that growth with many. This may lead you into a teaching/healing profession where you will love to share knowledge, share wisdom; or it may lead you to any lifestyle where you are a river of information for others. You will enjoy an optimistic approach to all life's problems, for you are confident in your belief that the right information, knowledge or opportunity will be there when you need it.

 Sirius - The Scorcher, with Mercury  in Prime

Skilled with language or ideas

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

With Sirius in paran with your Mercury your ideas, communications, and your business dealings can have a very large impact on others. For Sirius is one of the great stars of the sky. The Egyptians called it The Shining One or The Scorcher. It was linked to the life-giving rising of the Nile and in that capacity it was also called the Nile Star. Sirius is a marker of great deeds. It indicates that the mundane may become sacred, that the small action of the individual has a large effect on the collective. The individual may be sacrificed to this collective expression, or may gain fame and glory. It is a blast of energy that can burn your fingers, or help you achieve things that were not thought possible. Sirius with Mercury will pour this energy into your interests and projects. Giving skills with words, language, and indeed all forms of communication, this stellar combination will influence your career and bring you success in any large communications project or business dealing. The quality of this success will depend on the zodiacal quality of your natal Mercury.

Sualocin - The dolphin, with Saturn ♄ in Prime

An unconventional person, the eccentric

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

With Sualocin in paran with your Saturn you will tend to take an unconventional attitude to many things, not as a rebel but rather as one who is different but accepted by the establishment. For this star is the alpha star of the Dolphin and represents a kind of intelligent playfulness, but at the same time a certain mastery, or at least confidence of mastery, of one's environment. However, this does not seem to be a strong star, so it tends to act as a supporting statement for other such indications in your chart. Curiosity or mastery in one's environment, which you can use in a positive way, or from its more shadowy side as the "trickster". In paran with your Saturn this skill is to be your eccentric self, or to have very different attitudes and beliefs, but still be a part of the mainstream world. Indeed part of your work or profession will entail the positive use of your eccentricities.

Zosma - The Back of the Lion, with Jupiter ♃ in Prime

The Angel of Mercy; to have compassion

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

Natal Star Report - Wright Brothers Flight

With Zosma in paran with your Jupiter, you are a person of great compassion who endeavours to help people, animals, or the environment, in any way that you can. For Zosma is the place on the back of the Nemean Lion where it was crushed by Hercules. This myth is a symbol of the point in Greek and Roman mythology where older, goddess-centred beliefs were extinguished. Zosma itself is not feminine, but belongs rather to those whom the establishment, either directly or indirectly, makes powerless. You may be dealing with a victimising situation, or you may work with these issues as a social worker or care-giver. This is not a star of glory and fame, but rather of the invisible work of dealing with the victim, either in oneself or in one's work. Jupiter in paran with Zosma uses its teaching, benefic energy to help, heal, and teach others. This is a stellar combination which truly talks of an Angel of Mercy.

Stars of Your Latter Year:

All of these stars are setting as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your later years or the last third of your life. They will be influential in the nature of your reputation, the manner in which you retire, and the autumn of your life, its joys or its sorrows. These stars are:

Acubens - The Scarab Beetle of Life, with Mars  in Latter Years

The craftsperson; to create or build ideas or objects

This star is linked with the energy of life-giving, the Gateway of life, and thus to the concept of resurrection. This star may sit quietly in your life, shaping some of your spiritual attitudes and giving you a sense or belief in the concept of resurrection, either in a religious sense or simply as an optimistic outlook on life in all its diverse forms. With Acubens in paran to your Mars, your actions and motivation is to create beautiful ideas or objects. This can be in the world of craft, design or architecture, or it can be in ideas. If active in your childhood, then you would have been taught the value of careful work to create your outcomes. If Acubens is active with your Mars in your adult years, then this attitude runs through your hobbies and profession.

El Nath - The Horn of Taurus, with Sun  in Latter Years

To strongly and physically focus on one's goals

Curtailed Passage

That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

With El Nath in paran with your Sun, you are seen as a person who is forthright, military, or assertive and goal-orientated. For El Nath is the tip of the horn of the bull; the point of attack. And with this star in paran with your Sun, your identity is intertwined with this imagery. If active in your youth, your father-figure would have represented these concepts. He may have been a very assertive person who was involved with aggression or weapons in some manner, or in contrast, he may have been a person affected by such weapons. If, however, El Nath is active in your adult years, then it will have a say in your profession and the manner in which you define yourself. You may have a profession that requires aggression, or focused action, physical or verbal. This could be police work, crisis health worker, barrister, the military. Or you may simply be a person who has a reputation for getting the job done, even if it means standing on a few toes. El Nath is the ability to go in hard and achieve your outcomes. It is up to you to ensure that others are not hurt by this natural forcefulness in your chart.

Menkar - The Whale, with Venus  in Latter Years

Socially confronting, or seeking to represent others

Menkar is the alpha star of Cetus the whale, and this whale represents the human collective unconscious, that can erupt like a beast from the deep bearing, with equal probability, moments of great collective insight, or chaos and mayhem. So with Menkar, symbolic of these unconscious forces in the human collective, linked to your Venus, it indicates upheavals and changes in your social life, personal relationships and social values. Your personal life problems can become public, and be role models or catalysts for law or social attitude changes, in large or small groups. You may also have your own social values challenged and find yourself in the position of having to accept and understand customs or social problems or issues you have never even thought about. The social relating side to your life is like a leaf blowing in the wind of the collective. Learn to listen to your intuition, and also learn to be adaptable. And when you confront others with changes and social situations that they are not used to, do it with gentleness and compassion.

Mirach - The Receptive Feminine, with Venus ♀ in Latter Years

Beauty in body, soul or art

Mirach is connected to concepts of the young fertile virgin: receptivity, feminine power, intuition, and the arts. The theme of this star is one of being receptive and fertile and, when in paran with Venus, Mirach will influence your social conscience, your responses in relationships, and your enjoyment of sensual and sexual pleasures. This combination is the concept of beauty or the vamp; the great artist and master of colour or words; even the advertising artist, the person who knows how to use words, colour, or their own physical beauty to influence others. Beauty, in all its expressions, is an important theme in your life. You will seek themes of beauty in your relationships, friendships and business dealings. What is important, of course, is to remember that physical beauty is only skin deep, and real beauty arises from peaceful well-being in one's soul and spirit.

The Hearthstone of Your Life

All of these stars are on the Nadir, the bottom of the sky, as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will express themselves, firstly, as the foundation of your life, the roots from which you grow, and secondly, as the summation of your life. These stars can be considered your hearthstone; they are there from the beginning, influencing you from behind the scenes, but only really become visible in your life as you grow old. Some of these stars would have first expressed themselves in the prime of your life and were discussed in that section. These hearthstone stars are:

Al Rescha - The Sacred Knot, with Mercury ♀ in Foundation

To take ideas from one world and use them in another

Natal Star Report - Wright Brothers Flight

Al Rescha in paran to your Mercury influences how you think and talk, what interests you, and how you learn. Mercury is also the god of business, contracts and paperwork, so all of these areas will be influenced by the knot of Pisces, Al Rescha. In your youth, the star will give you a thirst for knowledge and a desire to explore many and diverse subjects, as you endeavour to link ideas together. If the star is active in your adult years, then you will write about, talk about or investigate different idea, with an underlying drive to link these ideas together. In business activities, Al Rescha indicates that you will work with diverse groups, or work to bring diverse groups or ideas together.

Alnilam - The Belt of Orion, with Jupiter ♃ in Foundation Success in bridging the gap from one social status to another

This is the bright buckle of the belt of the god and the star is symbolically linked to pulling things together. Taking knowledge that is already there and improving and expanding the subject in such a way that a new foundation is laid. Alnilam is not a power star, or one for those who make a show of their work, but is concerned with the steady, reliable plod that can produce well-grounded, long lasting work. With Alnilam in paran with your Jupiter, you find success in bridging the gap between your social or financial status and those with greater money or power. This could be through friendships, a chance meeting, marriage or through your business ideas. If Alnilam is active in your youth then your school friends, or some member of your parent's social group, can help you in later years. If active in your career then your work can put you in the position of improving the level of society in which you are accepted.

Ankaa - The Phoenix, with Moon ☾ in Foundation To instigate changes in family life

When the Moon is in paran to Ankaa, the transforming, changing symbolism of this star is woven into all things ruled by the Moon in your life. If active in your youth, then your mother-figure was someone who experienced great changes and transformations. If the Ankaa is active in your adult years, you will have a different attitude to women, children, home and nurturing. You will experience change in these areas, with some people frequently moving home, or large changes within the family circle. If your Moon is strong then Ankaa may effect your profession, leading you into a career which involves dealing with, instigating, and administrating changes in policy or attitudes to food, children, real estate, or all women's issues.

 Deneb Adige - The Shaman's Star, with Saturn  in Foundation

To act against the tide of society's expectations

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

 Phact - The Bow of the Argo, with Sun  in Foundation

Headstrong, someone who does not seek or take advice

With Phact in paran with your Sun your energy and vitality is linked to a star which used to be part of the Argo. Situated on the top of the bow, Phact was the point on the craft which cut through the waves in uncharted waters. Phact adds an element of exploration, of seeking the unknown, and of being prepared to move into uncharted waters. It can be a bold risk-taking statement or, alternatively, it could be the exploration of intellectual pursuits. If connected to your Sun in your childhood, then this will probably describe your father-figure. However, if the star is active in your adult years then you will have the desire and vitality to explore, and to sail into uncharted waters. This may be considered by others to be foolish risk-taking, rushing in where others fear to tread, or you may be known as a path-finder, or a person who can weave negotiations through unknown or stormy waters. Whatever its expression, you are not a stay-at-home type of person.

 Sirius - The Scorcher, with Mercury  in Foundation

Skilled with language or ideas

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

Sualocin - The dolphin, with Saturn ♄ in Foundation

An unconventional person, the eccentric

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

Zosma - The Back of the Lion, with Jupiter ♃ in Foundation

The Angel of Mercy; to have compassion

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

Star Legend

Each star has a pictogram that will help you remember the nature of the star as well as give you some simple information. There are three components to each star pictogram; the star magnitude symbol, the constellation image and the letter of the alphabet giving the star's common proper name.

The star symbol will tell you the brightness of the star.

★ = A star whose magnitude is less than 2.0. This is a bright or very bright star clearly visible even within a large city.

✦ = A star whose magnitude is between 2.0 and 2.9. This is a small star, clearly visible even within a city unless there is a great deal of light pollution, but better seen away from the city lights.

◇ = A star whose magnitude greater than 3.0 This is a faint star that would possibly not be seen if you live in a city, but would be visible on a clear night in the country. The human eye can see stars up to a magnitude of 6.0 provided the viewing conditions are good.

▽ = A star whose magnitude is variable, sometimes bright at other times not bright.

● = This is a nebula, not actually a star but an interstellar cloud of dust and gas.

The constellation image will tell you the constellation to which the star belongs, for example:

This is the pictogram for Regulus the bright star in the constellation Leo. The star symbol shows that it is a bright star and the image of the Lion represents Leo. All stars in Leo will have the same lion image.

This is the pictogram for Denebola another star that is not as bright as Regulus in the constellation Leo and ...

This is the pictogram for Zosma another star of similar brightness to Denebola also in the constellation Leo.

The letter of the alphabet will give you the first letter of the stars proper name.
