Day beginning at Sunrise

On the day you were born, you not only gained the magic of your horoscope, you also gained the myths and meanings of a sky full of stars. Not all the stars, just those that formed links to your natal planets via what is called parans. By considering the star parans in your life you will be encountering a whole new (though very old) layer of myth and meaning to your chart. Welcome to your Stars.

Each star has a unique and wonderful pattern of visibility for any given place on earth. Some stars will be visible for a period in the night, yet later in the year they will fail to appear and be lost to the view of stargazers. Others will also rise or set at night, but instead of disappearing from view altogether, they will lose touch with the horizon and spend the whole night being visible in the starry sky. Yet both these sorts of stars will eventually return to rising or setting during the night, with each individual star doing so on a particular date of the year. However, there is also another set of stars that do not partake of this dance and are always visible, and never sink beneath the horizon, spending every night circling around the pole.

To the Egyptians the stars were deities and so these annual star patterns had strong religious significance. The never setting circumpolar stars were considered to be the Immortals for these are the deities that never died, the stars that never set. But the stars that rose or set during the course of the year were the deities who moved between the world of humans and the world of the Immortals, or the Underworld, the place the stars journeyed when they disappeared from view. These were the deities who communed with humans, the deities who were approachable and open to prayer.

Such stars would, according to their unique rhythm, reappear at set calendar dates. If they reappeared from the Underworld, they would rise just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Rising Star. This star was considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the annual cycle re-emerged from the Underworld. Or, if the star came back from the realm of the Immortals and once again touched the earth, they would appear to set just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Setting Star. This star can also be considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the cycle appears to descend from the Immortal realm. So important were these times of the return of a star that the Egyptians based their religious calendar around such events and built temples designed to capture the returning star's light onto the altar of the deity.

Thus, there will be at least two stars that rule the period of time and place in which you were born. One star will be the most recent to have returned from the Underworld and the other would have returned from the realm of the Immortals. Both stars have significance for you. Occasionally more than one star can return on the same day so some people will have more than one Heliacal Rising Star or more than one Heliacal Setting Star. These stars, and their meanings, are guiding principles in your life.

Your Heliacal Rising Star is:

Rigel - The Protection of the Pharaoh

The desire to bring order to chaos, with words or actions

This is the star that has been walking the path of the underworld and has now emerged to be visible in the world of humans. This star, the Heliacal Rising Star, is the star that you were born under and it will bear gifts to you from the land of your past, your family and your genetics. It is your gift, the jewel or the treasure, which your ancestors handed you at your birth. This star is a theme in your life; helps to build your philosophies, and can at times take on a vocational pulse.

Being born with Rigel in such an important position on the day of your birth, you will have a strong connection to the mechanism of civilisation and the establishment. There will be a need to teach, or expand the worldview of others; or the need to protect the established worldview, believing that this represents the preferred and better way of life. This will be a strong statement in you, and could at times cause you to clash with non-establishment groups. However, for better or worse, your driving desire will be to bring order to any situation where you see disorder or chaos.

Your Heliacal Setting Star is:

Ras Alhague - The Healer

The healer; one who tries to bring help, through words or actions

This is the star that has been living amongst the immortals of the pole, and has now, at the time of your birth, returned to earth. This star is known as the Heliacal Setting Star and is a gift or treasure given to you from your spirit, from your immortal soul, from your daemon. This star represents goals that you reach for; vocations that motivate you, and the spiritual pathways that you seek. This star represents your doorway to the immortals, or your journey towards a fulfilled life. That which gives you the greatest happiness.

To have Ras Alhague in such an important position on the day of your birth means that the myths and meanings of the great healer and his serpent, and thus his wisdom, will be a part of your life. You may use this to be a healer, or you may be the one who needs the wisdom of others to be healed. Ophiuchus is also linked to knowledge, the type of knowledge that can save lives, or allow whole communities to benefit. You will always feel that you are a teacher, and will be drawn to helping others by spreading information. This information may concern issues or methods of healing, but it could also be any style of information that benefits the lives of others. Ophiuchus is the wise healer, and he is part of the journey of your life.

Stars that are linked to your planets...

Stars form links or parans to your planets, via the angles of your chart. If a planet is at a key point of its daily movement, either Rising, Setting, Culminating or At the Bottom of the Sky, and at the same time a star is also at one of these key points in its daily movement, then the star is in paran to that planet. The angle that the star occupies also tells us the period of your life when the mythology of the star will be expressed. If the star is rising then it affects your youth, if culminating then the prime of your life, if setting the latter years, and if lower the star is a foundation, or summary statement concerning your life.

Only the visible planets are used in this report, as the outer planets are generational and do not have meaning at a personal level.

Some Stars are at a Phase of Curtailed Passage

Some of the stars that are in paran to your natal planets are in a stage of their cycle known as Curtailed Passage. These stars were visible in the night sky at sunset, and were still visible in the night sky at sunrise. These stars have therefore lost contact with the earth, as they are not seen to touch the horizon during the course of the night and are thought to be walking with the immortals, and are not open to the prayers of humans. In this situation the stars seem to express themselves in a more fated manner, and you will find it more difficult to deal with, or embrace, the themes of these stars in your life. Therefore, in this report, any star that is of Curtailed Passage should be read with these emphases in mind.

Some Stars are at a Phase of Arising and Lying Hidden

Some of the stars that are in paran to your natal planets are in a stage of their cycle known as Arising and Lying Hidden. These stars can at times be seen at the latitude of your birth, however, in this period of time they are not visible in the night sky at sunset, and will still not be visible in the night sky at sunrise. So these stars have lost contact with the earth, and have returned to the underworld, the land of the dead. In this situation the stars will express themselves in a more fated manner, as they are no longer concerned with the land of the living, and the Egyptians believed that they could no longer hear your prayers. Thus you will struggle with these stars, as their meanings and myths will be more powerfully and bluntly expressed in your life. In this report, any star that is in a phase of Arising and Lying Hidden should be read with this emphasis in mind.

Some Stars are Circumpolar

Some of the stars which are influencing your chart are circumpolar. This means that, for your birth location, they are visible every night, for the whole night, regardless of the time of the year. They are permanently in the realm of the immortals. These stars should be read with greater emphases for they have a tendency to express themselves in a more black and white manner due to their lack of contact with the ways of humans.

Stars of Your Youth

All of these stars are rising as they form a paran to a planet. Therefore, all of these stars will express themselves in your childhood and young adulthood. Simply put, these stars influence the first third of your life. With these stars shaping your childhood, they will have an impact on your parents, schooling and social skills, and in that manner can have a large impact on your whole life. These stars are:

El Nath - The Horn of Taurus, with Moon  in Youth

A fighter, or one who knows the cruelty of life

El Nath is the tip of the horn, the point of attack. It was viewed as the force of the Bull, thereby having power over the waters or blood of life, and thus it can symbolise a great and terrible weapon. This is a potentially destructive skill that can be used to destroy or used to give life. With El Nath making a contact with your Moon, there will be issues of assertiveness or conflict involving the emotional, nurturing side of your life. For when the Moon is involved with a star, then the star's energy is blended with the caring, compassionate and empathic nature of the moon. If this star is active in your youth, then your mother-figure was either a person who was very assertive and abrasive, or an individual who suffered as a result of the cruelty of life. If, however, this star is active in your adult years, then it will influence your attitude to love, both who you love and how you love. It may symbolise drama or tragedy in your emotional life, or it may indicate that you are drawn to form relationships with very assertive, cruel and/ or self-confident people. The most productive use of this stellar combination is to learn to be assertive yourself, to have strong beliefs and to stand up and be counted if those beliefs are challenged. It is important, however, to balance this with concern for the welfare of others.

Spica - A Gift from the Goddess, with Jupiter  in Youth

A person who goes beyond the recognised limits of their field

With Spica in paran with your Jupiter, you are a person who finds great success when you reach beyond yourself, physically, or in scholarly pursuits. For Spica is the wheat sheaf in the hand of the goddess and is considered a symbol of her gifts to humankind. In present times, the wheat sheaf is the symbol of knowledge and insights which are respected. Spica is not connected with any particular field or profession, but rather shows the potential for brilliance. The star is a gift of brilliance, an innate talent, skill, or ability which is out of the ordinary. In paran with your Jupiter, all of this talent makes itself available to you when you push the boundaries of your own, or others', known limits and known worlds. The researcher, the explorer, the inventor, or the athlete; all of these lifestyles are expressive of this stellar combination.

Vega - Orpheus' Lyre, with Sun  in Youth

Seeing the magic in life, touching another world

Curtailed Passage      That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

With Vega in paran with your Sun, you are a charismatic or musical person. For Vega, the alpha star of the Lyre, is a most beautiful and bright star, and through its connection to Orpheus and his lyre, is linked to magic and divine spells. It is full of charisma and talks of one who has been touched by the other world. The Greek myth of Orpheus is about a musician whose music could tame the wildest of animals, and in that sense Vega is the star of music. For music is a spell and music can be spell-binding. Thus Vega gives you creative, mysterious skills which can be used for artistic, spiritual expression, or in a negative way as a tool of deception. It is however, a beautiful, magical star much like Fomalhaut, one of the Royal Stars of Persia, and will bring a touch of charisma to your life. In paran to your Sun, all of this magical energy and charisma can be linked to your father-figure; or you may use it in your adult life by devotion to another world, devotion to music and the arts, or a strong spiritual life.

Stars of Your Prime

All of these stars are culminating as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your adulthood, or the second third of your life. These stars will therefore have an impact on your career, adult relationships, children and financial prosperity. In addition, some of these stars will be doubly emphasised as they will not only be present and active in the prime of your life but will be shown, later in this report, to be coming from a deeper source, coming from the foundation stones of your being. These stars are discussed here, as it is in this period of your life that you first encounter their impact they will, however, simply grow stronger as your life unfolds. The stars that are active in the prime of your life are:

Castor - One of the Twins of Gemini, with Venus ♀ in Prime

Socially skilled, charming, and even artistic

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

This star is one of twins, its brother being Pollux. These two stars are the classic twins of the heavens and represent the essence of the universal struggle with polarity. Castor and Pollux seem, because of the constant challenge of struggling with polarities, to produce writers. Castor and Pollux are probably not about writing per se, but speak rather of the successful story-teller who has a knowledge of mixing good and evil, over-lapping them with each other until both are changed and both are whole. With Castor as the active star, then you will seek the bright side of the story or situation. You are aware of the polarity but lean towards the positive pole. You are able to explore ideas and express yourself without the constant need to examine or take into account the shadowy side of the issue. Castor in paran to your Venus indicates a certain natural charm, linked with good social skills in small talk and putting others at their ease. For some this stellar combination will also lead into song writing or poetry; but not with the hard edge of social comment, rather the more romantic universal themes. Castor in paran with Venus will seek nice or pleasant encounters, not for any goal-oriented purpose, but simply for the pleasure that they bring. This is a person who can use charm as a tool.

Mirach - The Receptive Feminine, with Sun  in Prime

Wanting to remove the pain or ugliness from life, interested in beauty

Curtailed Passage

That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This star embodies the symbolism of Andromeda, connected to concepts of the young fertile virgin: receptivity, feminine power, intuition, the arts, beauty and harmony. The theme of this star is, therefore, one of being receptive and fertile with creative ideas. With Mirach in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who has skills of design, rapport, and an eye for colour or beauty. If this star is active in your youth, your father-figure would be well-described by these concepts, and from him, therefore, you have gained your talents in art, and colour. If the star is active in your adult years, then it will influence your reputation and your work. Your talent for building consensus and gaining rapport, or your talent with design and colour, will strongly influence your career, and are skills that you can rely upon to help you with all of your life's ups and downs.

Zuben Elgenubi - The Southern Pan of the Scale, with

Mercury  in Prime

A spokesperson for a group, or a body of knowledge

With Zuben Elgenubi in paran with your Mercury, you will write, speak out, or in some way be a spokesperson for reform. The reform may be in social issues or it could be in a field of knowledge. For this star is one of a pair of stars, its twin being Zuben Eschamali, with each star representing one of the pans of the scale of Libra. The word zuben means claw, as the pans of Libra were originally the claws of Scorpio. Both of these stars have a common theme, with Zuben Elgenubi showing us the light, brighter side. Strongly involved in social reform or social justice, this star has higher ideals than its northern partner, for its prime motive is not personal gain but rather to benefit the group. This star is involved with reform, and will resist the temptation for personal gain or power. With this star in paran with your Mercury, you are interested in matters of reform, the law, financial markets and banking or politics. You may find yourself being a spokesperson, carrying the banner so to speak. However, this push for reform will not necessarily be part of your career. Since it represents a principle of your general lifestyle, not all of your work is done for wages, or other forms of personal gain.

Stars of Your Latter Year:

All of these stars are setting as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your later years or the last third of your life. They will be influential in the nature of your reputation, the manner in which you retire, and the autumn of your life, its joys or its sorrows. These stars are:

Al Rescha - The Sacred Knot, with Jupiter 4 in Latter Years

An innovative thinker who sets a standard for others to follow

This star takes its major symbolism from the concept of the knot. This is the point of contact between the two ancient fish of Pisces. It is therefore the point of contact between two points of knowledge: the joining of different ideas to create wisdom and understanding, or the marrying of two concepts to create a greater concept. This is a gentle star that indicates a tendency to seek different connections, to look at things in a different light, to join together separate concepts in search of a greater understanding. With Al Rescha in paran with your Jupiter, you will be a person able to envision what can be achieved. You will find solutions to difficult problems in a innovative way. Following these ideas will lead you to set new benchmarks within the field in which you work. If the star is present in your youth, then you may have experienced the gift of an inspirational teacher, one who taught you to think outside of the square. If Al Rescha is active in your adult years, then believe in your own solutions and ideas, for they will lead to achievement.

Alphard - The Heart of the Serpent, with Mercury ♀ in Latter Years

The revealer or holder of secrets, an investigating mind, a sharp tongue

Arising Lying Hidden      That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Arising and Lying hidden and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

Alphard in paran to your Mercury influences how you think and talk, what interests you, and how you learn. Alphard is the Heart of the Serpent and is linked in a ruthless manner to all things to do with nature, human rights, women and indeed all things feminine. With this combination, therefore, you will have a probing mind with the ability to remain focused on an issue. However, this focus can easily turn into obsession, and you can become ruthless in the pursuit of your interest. Alphard with Mercury will also involve you with secrets: holding them or discovering them, solving mysteries, or pursuing the truth.

Alpheratz - The Navel of Pegasus, with Sun ☉ in Latter
Years

Independent and freedom-loving

Curtailed Passage      That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

With Alpheratz in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who seeks freedom and independence at every step of your life. Alpheratz is the speed of the galloping horse, and this is linked to your definition of yourself and how you wish to live your life. If Alpheratz is active in your youth then you are taught, by teachers, father-figures or other male figures around you, of the importance of freedom, the importance of walking or running on your own path. If Alpheratz is active in your adult years, then moving forward in your own chosen direction, in your own chosen field, is a fundamental principle in your life. You will be self employed, or otherwise free to dictate the contents of your day. You will fight against any system or individual that tries to block or contain your spirit.

 Denebola - The Tail of the Lion, with Jupiter ♃ in Latter Years

To have success with unpopular or different ventures

Denebola is linked to the mythology of the Nemean Lion, for just as the Nemean Lion was symbolic of the goddess worship still practiced in rural areas, this star indicates in some degree 'being out of step' or being out of the main stream of thought. Not conforming; living on the fringe. Denebola, therefore, adds an element of difference, seeing the world differently in some way. With Denebola in paran with your Jupiter, fortune will follow you when you are prepared to walk a different path and go against the mainstream thinking of your culture. Be prepared to be brave and to take risks. For you, the old motto of 'Fortune favours the brave' is truly valid. If active in your childhood, then you have learned from a grandfather figure or teacher that success comes to those who dare to be different. A view that will become a personal philosophy in your adulthood. If this combination is active in your adult years, life teaches you that thinking and acting outside of the square can produce surprisingly good results.

 El Nath - The Horn of Taurus, with Mars ♂ in Latter Years

To take physical action even in the face of strong opposition

El Nath is the tip of the horn, the point of attack. It was viewed as the force of the Bull, thereby having power over the waters or blood of life, and thus it can symbolise a great and terrible weapon. This is a potentially destructive skill that can be used to destroy or used to give life. With El Nath making a contact in your chart, then at some level of your life there will be issues of the use, or non-use, of weapons, physical, emotional, or intellectual. With El Nath in paran to your Mars, then your actions and what motivates you are focused on confrontation or aggression. Your desire for action, based on the strength of your belief in what you feel is the best and correct course of action, will at times over-ride your own need for physical safety. El Nath adds heat to the fires that burn inside you. Your challenge therefore, with this stellar combination, is to ensure that your actions are not so hasty or assertive that they are damaging or harmful to others, or yourself.

Rukbat - The Steady Stance of the Archer, with Sun  in Latter Years

To be persistent in your aims, to be unswerving in your goals

With Rukbat in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who steady and reliable. For Rukbat is the foot of the archer, Sagittarius, and is the expression of solidness, and a steady platform. If this star was active in your youth, then your father-figure is described by the star, persistent, unchanging and maybe even stubborn. However, if this star is active in your adult years, then it will give you determination and persistence in your goals and aims.

Zuben Eschamali - The Northern Pan of the Scale, with Sun  in Latter Years

The ability to influence society through one's work

With Zuben Eschamali in paran with your Sun, you are considered a socially orientated, socially aware individual who has status in the role, or position, that you fill. For this star is one of a pair of stars, its twin being Zuben Elgenubi, with each star representing one of the pans of the scale of Libra. Both these stars have a common theme, with Zuben Eschamali showing the more shadowy side of the concept. This theme is to be strongly involved in social reform, or social justice, with this star expressing itself in a more direct, and sometimes more self-interested, way than its southern twin. Zuben Eschamali can be very effective in the community, but you will have a strong motive of personal gain, or power. The local councillor who seeks to help his or her community, but also wants the status of being on the council, is a positive example of Zuben Eschamali,. However, if you desired the position in the community in order to act in a corrupt way, this is the negative expression of the star. With this star linked to your Sun, you may have seen your father-figure in this light, either ambitious for power and status, or a person willing to serve his community as long as there was some form of recognition. In your adult life, this stellar combination will influence your career, or standing in the community, motivating you to play a part in the affairs of your community, and to take on jobs and roles. This can be a noble undertaking, but always be aware of your motives and insure that your ambition does not compromise your ethics.

The Hearthstone of Your Life

All of these stars are on the Nadir, the bottom of the sky, as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will express themselves, firstly, as the foundation of your life, the roots from which you grow, and secondly, as the summation of your life. These stars can be considered your hearthstone; they are there from the beginning, influencing you from behind the scenes, but only really become visible in your life as you grow old. Some of these stars would have first expressed themselves in the prime of your life and were discussed in that section. These hearthstone stars are:

Acubens - The Scarab Beetle of Life, with Moon  in Foundation

A paternal instinct; trying to make people's lives more fruitful

Arising Lying Hidden      That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Arising and Lying hidden and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This star is linked with the energy of life-giving, the Gateway of life, and thus to the concept of resurrection. This star may sit quietly in your life, shaping some of your spiritual attitudes and giving you a sense or belief in the concept of resurrection, either in a religious sense or simply as an optimistic outlook on life in all its diverse forms. When the Moon is involved with a star, it adds to the star, the qualities of caring, compassion and empathy. On a professional level it will be involved with children, women's issues, health and welfare. On a personal level it will colour your feelings and emotional well-being. With the Moon linked to Acubens, there is a strong paternal instinct and a joy in seeing people, planets, animals, or even ideas, blossom and grow. If present in your youth, then these concepts are part of your family's values. If active in your adult years, then you are involved in helping people lead fuller lives.

Castor - One of the Twins of Gemini, with Venus ♀ in Foundation

Socially skilled, charming, and even artistic

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

Denebola - The Tail of the Lion, with Venus ♀ in Foundation

To challenge accepted social opinions

Denebola is linked to the mythology of the Nemean Lion, for just as the Nemean Lion was symbolic of the goddess worship still practiced in rural areas, this star indicates in some degree 'being out of step' or being out of the main stream of thought. Not conforming; living on the fringe. Denebola, therefore, adds an element of difference, seeing the world differently in some way. Denebola in paran to your Venus will influence your social conscience and the types of relationships that you seek. This star represents the concept of an alternative path, the desire to be different, and the strength or tenacity to clash with the views of others. When linked to Venus this confronting, challenging energy flows into your social conscience, giving you the desire to confront and put forward opinions which will be different to mainstream thinking. If the star is functioning in your personal life, you will seek alternative styles of friendships and relationships. You will be happy going against the tide of social opinion in these areas of your life. In addition, this stellar combination can give you unique ideas in the world of colour and fashion. Denebola with Venus takes your social values, opinions, relationships and friendships, and asks that, in one or all of these areas, you walk a different path to those around you.

Diadem - The Woman's Crown, with Sun ☉ in Foundation

Willing to make a sacrifice

Natal Star Report - Carl Jung

The star takes its name from the word diadem, a symbol of royalty worn on the head or a small crown. Diadem seems to be about feminine strength. This star does not seek glory or personal fame. It belongs to the quiet workers, the people who slave for years helping or working for the benefit of a group but never seeking personal recognition or fame. And at times the sacrifice it asks may seem beyond the person's ability to give. With Diadem in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who makes sacrifices for the well-being of others. A person who undertakes a journey, or a course of action, designed to benefit another person, a group, or a principle. If active in your childhood then your father-figure was such a person, teaching you directly or indirectly that the journey of self-discovery needs to be intertwined with service. If Diadem is active in your adult years then your profession will be coloured with the need to set another person, or a group's, cause at a higher priority than the quality of your own life.

Star Legend

Each star has a pictogram that will help you remember the nature of the star as well as give you some simple information. There are three components to each star pictogram; the star magnitude symbol, the constellation image and the letter of the alphabet giving the star's common proper name.

The star symbol will tell you the brightness of the star.

★ = A star whose magnitude is less than 2.0. This is a bright or very bright star clearly visible even within a large city.

✦ = A star whose magnitude is between 2.0 and 2.9. This is a small star, clearly visible even within a city unless there is a great deal of light pollution, but better seen away from the city lights.

◇ = A star whose magnitude greater than 3.0 This is a faint star that would possibly not be seen if you live in a city, but would be visible on a clear night in the country. The human eye can see stars up to a magnitude of 6.0 provided the viewing conditions are good.

▽ = A star whose magnitude is variable, sometimes bright at other times not bright.

● = This is a nebula, not actually a star but an interstellar cloud of dust and gas.

The constellation image will tell you the constellation to which the star belongs, for example:

This is the pictogram for Regulus the bright star in the constellation Leo. The star symbol shows that it is a bright star and the image of the Lion represents Leo. All stars in Leo will have the same lion image.

This is the pictogram for Denebola another star that is not as bright as Regulus in the constellation Leo and ...

This is the pictogram for Zosma another star of similar brightness to Denebola also in the constellation Leo.

The letter of the alphabet will give you the first letter of the stars proper name.
