Day beginning at Sunrise

On the day you were born, you not only gained the magic of your horoscope, you also gained the myths and meanings of a sky full of stars. Not all the stars, just those that formed links to your natal planets via what is called parans. By considering the star parans in your life you will be encountering a whole new (though very old) layer of myth and meaning to your chart. Welcome to your Stars.

Each star has a unique and wonderful pattern of visibility for any given place on earth. Some stars will be visible for a period in the night, yet later in the year they will fail to appear and be lost to the view of stargazers. Others will also rise or set at night, but instead of disappearing from view altogether, they will lose touch with the horizon and spend the whole night being visible in the starry sky. Yet both these sorts of stars will eventually return to rising or setting during the night, with each individual star doing so on a particular date of the year. However, there is also another set of stars that do not partake of this dance and are always visible, and never sink beneath the horizon, spending every night circling around the pole.

To the Egyptians the stars were deities and so these annual star patterns had strong religious significance. The never setting circumpolar stars were considered to be the Immortals for these are the deities that never died, the stars that never set. But the stars that rose or set during the course of the year were the deities who moved between the world of humans and the world of the Immortals, or the Underworld, the place the stars journeyed when they disappeared from view. These were the deities who communed with humans, the deities who were approachable and open to prayer.

Such stars would, according to their unique rhythm, reappear at set calendar dates. If they reappeared from the Underworld, they would rise just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Rising Star. This star was considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the annual cycle re-emerged from the Underworld. Or, if the star came back from the realm of the Immortals and once again touched the earth, they would appear to set just before, or with, the rising sun and be called the Heliacal Setting Star. This star can also be considered the ruling deity for a period of time until the next star in the cycle appears to descend from the Immortal realm. So important were these times of the return of a star that the Egyptians based their religious calendar around such events and built temples designed to capture the returning star's light onto the altar of the deity.

Thus, there will be at least two stars that rule the period of time and place in which you were born. One star will be the most recent to have returned from the Underworld and the other would have returned from the realm of the Immortals. Both stars have significance for you. Occasionally more than one star can return on the same day so some people will have more than one Heliacal Rising Star or more than one Heliacal Setting Star. These stars, and their meanings, are guiding principles in your life.

Your Heliacal Rising Star is:

Aldebaran - The Eye of the Bull

To be guided by your principles and integrity

This is the star that has been walking the path of the underworld and has now emerged to be visible in the world of humans. This star, the Heliacal Rising Star, is the star that you were born under and it will bear gifts to you from the land of your past, your family and your genetics. It is your gift, the jewel or the treasure, which your ancestors handed you at your birth. This star is a theme in your life; helps to build your philosophies, and can at times take on a vocational pulse.

Aldebaran is one of the great stars in the sky. It is one of the Royal Stars of Persia, being the Watcher in the East, the great cornerstone marking the spring equinox. In this capacity Aldebaran was the god Mithra, or Ahura Mazda, the slayer of the Cosmic Bull. Mithra was a great military god who gave victories to his followers, but only if they followed the strictest procedure in his worship. Aldebaran's connection to Mithra, and the beliefs and customs linked to the god, enable us to derive a more three-dimensional meaning for Aldebaran, namely that success will come but only through ethical integrity and constructive objectives. Mithra was a warrior king who also wore the title 'lord of contracts'. He considered all exchanges as sacred and therefore oversaw the business of his followers, insisting on their honesty and purity. If they failed they would be condemned to an ordeal of fire. This was usually enacted, by the worshippers of Mithra, in forcing a suspected person to run through a tunnel of fire. Their survival was Mithra's judgement of innocence.

Being one of the four Royal Stars of Persia, it is a very powerful star and offers the possibility of glory, success or happiness, but only if a particular nemesis can be overcome. The challenge for Aldebaran is one of integrity and honour. Greatness can be achieved, but you will be challenged on the integrity and purity of your thoughts and dealings. The presence of Aldebaran in a chart indicates that you will have to face moral dilemmas which challenge your integrity. Success will be presented to you. However, along the journey you will be tempted to compromise your position, to go against your own integrity. Be aware that when this star is involved, any compromise of your integrity will have negative results, and all that is gained could be lost very rapidly. With Aldebaran in such an important position on the day of your birth you will be flooded with strong principles, ethics, things about which you feel strongly. These principles are a vital part of your success, but you will be challenged on them. You will have to fight to maintain the purity of what you believe, and any wavering of your integrity could cause you to lose ground rapidly. You will be guided by your principles.

Your Heliacal Setting Star is:

Arcturus - The Hunter and the Farmer

Always seeking a new pathway

This is the star that has been living amongst the immortals of the pole, and has now, at the time of your birth, returned to earth. This star is known as the Heliacal Setting Star and is a gift or treasure given to you from your spirit, from your immortal soul, from your daemon. This star represents goals that you reach for; vocations that motivate you, and the spiritual pathways that you seek. This star represents your doorway to the immortals, or your journey towards a fulfilled life. That which gives you the greatest happiness.

This is the star in the northern skies which symbolises the transition from the nomadic hunter-gatherer to the herder-cultivator-ploughman villager. Thus Arcturus embodies the symbolism of guarding, learning, teaching, leading. Leading and protecting people as they embrace a new life style. One who can lead the way, one who has the vision or the spirit to take the first step. With Arcturus in such an important position on the day of your birth, it will indicate leadership qualities and the ability to explore or move forward into new fields. You will be known as a person with these abilities, either in your local community or on a global level. The other stars in your chart will indicate the manner in which you use these skills.

Stars that were on the Angles at the moment of your birth...

At the moment you were born the following star or stars were on your Cross of Matter. This is the cross made up of your Ascendant/Descendant axis and your MC/IC axis. Known also as the angles of a chart, these four points are your connection between the spiritual, or cosmic, world and the physical world in which you live. A star on one of the angles acts like a filter or lens between the world of your spirit and the material world, the world of form, shape and expression. Such a star will have a strong influence on your lifestyle, and the daily unfolding of your physical, emotional, and financial life.

Sadalsuud - Luckiest of the Lucky

A lucky person, a person with a natural physical talent

Sadalsuud is one of a pair of stars in Aquarius, both of which meant "lucky" to their Arabian namers. Sadalmelek, this star's twin, was translated as Lucky One of the King, and Sadalsuud means Luckiest of the Lucky. Link this with the symbolism of the Water Carrier as a bringer of life-giving water and/or rain, and you can think of this star as a bringer of good events or news. Sadalsuud is the more intuitive or less conscious flow of this luck, or life-giving water. With this star on your angles at the moment of your birth, you will have natural physical talent, which you may choose to develop, or not. This talent may be in athletics and sport, or in dance, acting or performance.

Stars that are linked to your planets...

Stars form links or parans to your planets, via the angles of your chart. If a planet is at a key point of its daily movement, either Rising, Setting, Culminating or At the Bottom of the Sky, and at the same time a star is also at one of these key points in its daily movement, then the star is in paran to that planet. The angle that the star occupies also tells us the period of your life when the mythology of the star will be expressed. If the star is rising then it affects your youth, if culminating then the prime of your life, if setting the latter years, and if lower the star is a foundation, or summary statement concerning your life.

Only the visible planets are used in this report, as the outer planets are generational and do not have meaning at a personal level.

Some Stars are at a Phase of Curtailed Passage

Some of the stars that are in paran to your natal planets are in a stage of their cycle known as Curtailed Passage. These stars were visible in the night sky at sunset, and were still visible in the night sky at sunrise. These stars have therefore lost contact with the earth, as they are not seen to touch the horizon during the course of the night and are thought to be walking with the immortals, and are not open to the prayers of humans. In this situation the stars seem to express themselves in a more fated manner, and you will find it more difficult to deal with, or embrace, the themes of these stars in your life. Therefore, in this report, any star that is of Curtailed Passage should be read with these emphases in mind.

Some Stars are at a Phase of Arising and Lying Hidden

Some of the stars that are in paran to your natal planets are in a stage of their cycle known as Arising and Lying Hidden. These stars can at times be seen at the latitude of your birth, however, in this period of time they are not visible in the night sky at sunset, and will still not be visible in the night sky at sunrise. So these stars have lost contact with the earth, and have returned to the underworld, the land of the dead. In this situation the stars will express themselves in a more fated manner, as they are no longer concerned with the land of the living, and the Egyptians believed that they could no longer hear your prayers. Thus you will struggle with these stars, as their meanings and myths will be more powerfully and bluntly expressed in your life. In this report, any star that is in a phase of Arising and Lying Hidden should be read with this emphasis in mind.

Some Stars are Circumpolar

Some of the stars which are influencing your chart are circumpolar. This means that, for your birth location, they are visible every night, for the whole night, regardless of the time of the year. They are permanently in the realm of the immortals. These stars should be read with greater emphases for they have a tendency to express themselves in a more black and white manner due to their lack of contact with the ways of humans.

Stars of Your Youth

All of these stars are rising as they form a paran to a planet. Therefore, all of these stars will express themselves in your childhood and young adulthood. Simply put, these stars influence the first third of your life. With these stars shaping your childhood, they will have an impact on your parents, schooling and social skills, and in that manner can have a large impact on your whole life. These stars are:

 Alkes - The Crater or the Cup, with Sun  in Youth

A vessel, to carry something for others

With Alkes in paran with your Sun your identity, your sense of personal definition and the way that others see or remember you, will be linked to a subject, an idea or a message. You hold something for others, be it storytelling, art, music, insights, or visions. It may even be genetic, being the last of your line or perhaps the only child, the sole carrier of your parents' genes. There is something precious about all of us, but with Alkes linked to your Sun your sense of self is married to your uniqueness. Use it well and consciously. Try to carry this gift in the best possible way.

 Deneb Algedi - The Ancient Law Giver, with Mercury  in Youth

The scholar, the one who is seen to be wise

Deneb Algedi is the ancient law-giver and, in paran to your Mercury, your approach to the world of learning, speaking, writing, indeed all forms of communication, will be methodical and consistent. You have a fundamental understanding of the importance of education, and the importance of researching your facts. As a consequence, in your adulthood you will be respected for your knowledge. This knowledge may manifest in business, in the fairness of your negotiations, the thoroughness of your research before you make decisions, or it may be in a recognised field of knowledge.

Sadalmelek - Lucky One of the King, with Venus ♀ in

Youth

A sense and appreciation of beauty

With Sadalmelek in paran with your Venus you will be a person who has a good eye for design. You will also be a good judge of people, and a good social networker. For Sadalmelek is one of a pair of stars in the constellation of Aquarius, both of which meant "lucky" to their Arabian namers. Indeed their names mean a form of luck, Sadalmelek being translated as Lucky One of the King, and Sadalsuud, its twin, meaning Luckiest of the Lucky. Sadalmelek is the more conscious form of this luck, and you will find that as you put effort into your network of friends, colleagues and acquaintances, you will enjoy good friendships. Also, if you put effort into your own artistic expression, no matter how humble or how glorious, you will gain a sense of fulfillment and completeness.

Youth

Inspirational breakthroughs that solve problems

This star influences your childhood, but its meaning and impact returns in your latter years. An issue from your childhood may finally be resolved, or a talent is finally revealed, in the later years of your life.

With Sadalmelek in paran with your Jupiter you will be a person who finds that fortune follows as a result of exploration, either academically, in travel, or even in the sporting arena. For Sadalmelek is one of a pair of stars in the constellation of Aquarius, both of which meant "lucky" to their Arabian namers. Indeed their names mean a form of luck, Sadalmelek being translated as Lucky One of the King, and Sadalsuud, its twin, meaning Luckiest of the Lucky. Sadalmelek is the more conscious form of this luck, and you will find that in applying yourself to problems, the lucky chance occurs that gives you the insight or breakthrough. Or you may attract fortunate events, in terms of meetings, friendships and ideas, when you travel and explore the world.

Stars of Your Prime

All of these stars are culminating as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your adulthood, or the second third of your life. These stars will therefore have an impact on your career, adult relationships, children and financial prosperity. In addition, some of these stars will be doubly emphasised as they will not only be present and active in the prime of your life but will be shown, later in this report, to be coming from a deeper source, coming from the foundation stones of your being. These stars are discussed here, as it is in this period of your life that you first encounter their impact they will, however, simply grow stronger as your life unfolds. The stars that are active in the prime of your life are:

Acubens - The Scarab Beetle of Life, with Moon  in Prime

A paternal instinct; trying to make people's lives more fruitful

This star is linked with the energy of life-giving, the Gateway of life, and thus to the concept of resurrection. This star may sit quietly in your life, shaping some of your spiritual attitudes and giving you a sense or belief in the concept of resurrection, either in a religious sense or simply as an optimistic outlook on life in all its diverse forms. When the Moon is involved with a star, it adds to the star, the qualities of caring, compassion and empathy. On a professional level it will be involved with children, women's issues, health and welfare. On a personal level it will colour your feelings and emotional well-being. With the Moon linked to Acubens, there is a strong paternal instinct and a joy in seeing people, planets, animals, or even ideas, blossom and grow. If present in your youth, then these concepts are part of your family's values. If active in your adult years, then you are involved in helping people lead fuller lives.

Alnilam - The Belt of Orion, with Mars in Prime

An individual who is an active problem-solver

Arising Lying Hidden That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Arising and Lying hidden and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

This is the bright buckle of the belt of the god and the star is symbolically linked to pulling things together. Taking knowledge that is already there and improving and expanding the subject in such a way that a new foundation is laid. Alnilam is not a power star, or one for those who make a show of their work, but is concerned with the steady, reliable plod that can produce well-grounded, long lasting work. With Alnilam in paran to your Mars, your actions and what motivates you are focused into problem solving. There is a love of challenge and an active seeking of mental or physical gaps to be bridged. This desire to solve problems will be expressed in many different ways, but always it will have a physical impact, a moment when the ideas are put into practice. For Alnilam seeks new ways of doing things and, when in paran with Mars, focuses the star into a goal-oriented approach. You will need results and want physical outcomes.

Betelgeuse - The Right Shoulder of the God, with Sun  in Prime

Success in one's ventures

Arising Lying Hidden That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Arising and Lying hidden and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This is one of the great stars of the sky and talks of unbridled success without complications. This is the right hand, arm-pit or shoulder of the god, so represents that which is clear and strong. Betelgeuse is effective, brilliant and successful. With Betelgeuse in paran with your Sun you are seen as a successful person, an individual who is empowered and capable. If active in your youth then your father-figure was larger than life, and may even have appeared too dauntingly successful for you to relate to. If active in your adult years then this is a blessing. Be confident in your ability to win through, to influence people and to be successful. Such a star is a gift, so use it wisely, for what you seek is what you will receive.

Diadem - The Woman's Crown, with Sun  in Prime

Willing to make a sacrifice

The star takes its name from the word diadem, a symbol of royalty worn on the head or a small crown. Diadem seems to be about feminine strength. This star does not seek glory or personal fame. It belongs to the quiet workers, the people who slave for years helping or working for the benefit of a group but never seeking personal recognition or fame. And at times the sacrifice it asks may seem beyond the person's ability to give. With Diadem in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who makes sacrifices for the well-being of others. A person who undertakes a journey, or a course of action, designed to benefit another person, a group, or a principle. If active in your childhood then your father-figure was such a person, teaching you directly or indirectly that the journey of self-discovery needs to be intertwined with service. If Diadem is active in your adult years then your profession will be coloured with the need to set another person, or a group's, cause at a higher priority than the quality of your own life.

Ras Alhague - The Healer, with Mars  in Prime

Bringing order and wisdom to difficult problems

Curtailed Passage That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Curtailed Passage and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This influence of this star comes from your foundations, the roots of the tree of your life, your family history. In this period of your life you start to experience its energy in your social and professional world, but it grows stronger as you grow older until it eventually adds to the overall meaning of your life.

With Ras Alhague in paran with your Mars you are a person who is motivated to take action in order to increase your options or opportunities for greater knowledge. Ras Alhague belongs to Ophiuchus, the great healer in the sky who holds a serpent in his hands. Ophiuchus therefore represents not only healing, but also the knowledge of healing. When in paran with Mars, it will focus your energy into all areas to do with information, knowledge, education and research. The common theme will be the desire to be of benefit to others.

Rukbat - The Steady Stance of the Archer, with Saturn  in Prime

To undertake tedious or painstaking tasks; to work with great care and precision

With Rukbat in paran with your Saturn, you are a person who moves forward only after careful planning and preparation. For Rukbat is the foot of the archer, Sagittarius, and is the expression of solidness, and a steady platform. This can be an excellent stellar combination if you use it in a profession, or in any context which benefits from such painstaking care. However, you are not at your best when you are asked to think rapidly or move quickly. Leave the haste to others.

You are a rock, and can undertake careful and at times tedious work, and in this work you can build a base on which others can stand.

Stars of Your Latter Year:

All of these stars are setting as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will be influencing you in your later years or the last third of your life. They will be influential in the nature of your reputation, the manner in which you retire, and the autumn of your life, its joys or its sorrows. These stars are:

Antares - The Heart of the Scorpion, with Jupiter 4 in Latter Years

The engineer, a person who can envisage a structure, material or social

This star is the Heart of the Scorpion and is one of the great stars of the sky. It is a Royal Star of Persia and was known as the Watcher of the West. To the Persians this star was the god of the dead, Yima. Being a Royal Star, Antares offers great success, worldly or otherwise. However, it also indicates that you may well cause your own undoing. The natural desire of this star is to generate success by going through a cleansing life-and-death experience. It can cause you to seek this intensity even when it is not required. A powerful star, this will imply that you will go to extremes, intentionally or unintentionally. Success will come, as this is one of the Royal Stars, but only through continually putting your efforts to the test and honing them through the fires of experience. The planet in contact with Antares will indicate how this energy will be expressed in your life. The danger is one of seeking drama simply for the thrill, and if this happens, it can lead to the loss of all that has been gained. With Antares in paran with your Jupiter, then from chaos, or from the void, you can see a structure, organization or pattern. Antares, when in paran with Jupiter, shows its more constructive nature is revealed. You have a talent for taking seemingly random events, or disorganised components, or problems, and grasping a solution. You may work in the material world with this skill or you may apply this to social problems, within your family or within your career.

Capella - The Charioteer, with Moon  in Latter Years

Seeking freedom for oneself and/or others

Capella in most charts lends a nurturing but free-spirited flavour. The star is linked to Artemis the Greek goddess of the hunt and her Roman counterpart Diana. It is the concept of the fertile goddess, but she is linked to the horse and therefore embodies action and movement. With Capella in paran with your Moon, the freedom-loving, but domestically inclined, energy of this star is directed towards the desire to help others. If Capella was active in your youth then your mother-figure would have been a woman who sought the greatest good for others, yourself, or even of a whole community. If active in your adult years then this star can influence your career, leading you to work in areas committed to the improvement of the quality of people's lives. Or perhaps just giving you a desire to demonstrate, via your actions or example, that barriers can be broken.

Diadem - The Woman's Crown, with Moon  in Latter Years

To show devotion to a cause, or group

The star takes its name from the word diadem, a symbol of royalty worn on the head or a small crown. Diadem seems to be about feminine strength. This star does not seek glory or personal fame. It belongs to the quiet workers, the people who slave for years helping or working for the benefit of a group but never seeking personal recognition or fame. And at times the sacrifice it asks may seem beyond the person's ability to give. With Diadem in paran with your Moon there will be a cause or a person to which you are devoted. If active in your childhood, then your mother-figure was a person who would willingly sacrifice herself for the well-being of others. Her devotion could have been to other family members, or other people in her world. If, however, Diadem is active in your adult years, then you will become devoted to a cause, or a person. This devotion could be spiritual or artistic, or simply but no less importantly, the devotion to a loved one, and a willingness to give of yourself and your time to the needs of the other.

Latter Years

Inspirational breakthroughs that solve problems

This star first influenced your childhood, and its nature is also expressed, and possibility better understood, now in the latter years of your life. Refer back to your childhood stars for its meaning.

The Hearthstone of Your Life

All of these stars are on the Nadir, the bottom of the sky, as they form a paran to a planet. These stars will express themselves, firstly, as the foundation of your life, the roots from which you grow, and secondly, as the summation of your life. These stars can be considered your hearthstone; they are there from the beginning, influencing you from behind the scenes, but only really become visible in your life as you grow old. Some of these stars would have first expressed themselves in the prime of your life and were discussed in that section. These hearthstone stars are:

Acumen - One of the Stings of the Scorpion, with Sun  in Foundation

Personal attacks on one's credibility

This is one of a pair of nebulae its twin being Aculeus. Both of these stars, Aculeus and Acumen, are the tail of Scorpio, the sting, and tend to be linked to attacks, not only physical, but also mental, verbal or spiritual. Acumen carries the negative or shadow side, so there are attacks that weaken, attacks that can slowly but surely erode you. With Acumen in paran with your Sun, you will find that life and life's problems can start to wear you down. These small attacks can, slowly over your life, weaken you and, because Acumen is linked to your Sun, it will also weaken your vitality and love of life. If the star is active in your youth, then it may effect your father or other authority-figures; they may being harsh on you, or weakened by life's struggles. However, if active in your adult years then the best approach to Acumen is to realise that you need to live your life with a philosophical frame of mind, allow time to sort out issues, and learn to bend and flow with the times.

Aldebaran - The Eye of the Bull, with Mercury ♀ in Foundation

The noble thinker, the person with integrity, a naturalist

Being one of the four Royal Stars of Persia, Aldebaran is a very powerful star and offers the possibility of glory, success or happiness, but only if a particular nemesis can be overcome. The challenge for Aldebaran is one of integrity and honour. Greatness can be achieved, but you will be challenged on the integrity and purity of your thoughts and dealings. With Aldebaran in paran to your Mercury it influences how you think and talk, what interests you, and how you learn. Aldebaran is also linked to the world of nature, and therefore, when in paran with Mercury, can also talk of success and respect gained through physical talents. If active in your youth, then you have been taught to respect nature and the written word, and most importantly, to have faith in yourself. This faith may have been in your ideas or your physical talent. If the star is active in your adult years, then as you grow older there is a deepening of appreciation for noble causes, subjects and ideas, or your own physical talent. Periodically you will be challenged, but as long as you are true to yourself you will find success in the face of such challenges.

Annilam - The Belt of Orion, with Mars ♂ in Foundation

An individual who is an active problem-solver

Arising Lying Hidden That the time of your birth, and for this latitude, this star is in the phase of Arising and Lying hidden and is therefore to be read more in the extremes of its meaning, rather than a more balanced expression. Refer to the beginning of this report to refresh yourself with the meaning of such a star phase.

This star expresses itself in the prime of your life but continues to grow in strength as you age. Eventually it becomes one of the main defining features of your life. For more details on the meaning of this stellar combination, look again at the stars of your prime.

Mirach - The Receptive Feminine, with Sun  in Foundation

Wanting to remove the pain or ugliness from life, interested in beauty

This star embodies the symbolism of Andromeda, connected to concepts of the young fertile virgin: receptivity, feminine power, intuition, the arts, beauty and harmony. The theme of this star is, therefore, one of being receptive and fertile with creative ideas. With Mirach in paran with your Sun you are seen as a person who has skills of design, rapport, and an eye for colour or beauty. If this star is active in your youth, your father-figure would be well-described by these concepts, and from him, therefore, you have gained your talents in art, and colour. If the star is active in your adult years, then it will influence your reputation and your work. Your talent for building consensus and gaining rapport, or your talent with design and colour, will strongly influence your career, and are skills that you can rely upon to help you with all of your life's ups and downs.

Ras Alhague - The Healer, with Mars  in Foundation

Bringing order and wisdom to difficult problems

Star Legend

Each star has a pictogram that will help you remember the nature of the star as well as give you some simple information. There are three components to each star pictogram; the star magnitude symbol, the constellation image and the letter of the alphabet giving the star's common proper name.

The star symbol will tell you the brightness of the star.

★ = A star whose magnitude is less than 2.0. This is a bright or very bright star clearly visible even within a large city.

✦ = A star whose magnitude is between 2.0 and 2.9. This is a small star, clearly visible even within a city unless there is a great deal of light pollution, but better seen away from the city lights.

◇ = A star whose magnitude greater than 3.0 This is a faint star that would possibly not be seen if you live in a city, but would be visible on a clear night in the country. The human eye can see stars up to a magnitude of 6.0 provided the viewing conditions are good.

▽ = A star whose magnitude is variable, sometimes bright at other times not bright.

● = This is a nebula, not actually a star but an interstellar cloud of dust and gas.

The constellation image will tell you the constellation to which the star belongs, for example:

This is the pictogram for Regulus the bright star in the constellation Leo. The star symbol shows that it is a bright star and the image of the Lion represents Leo. All stars in Leo will have the same lion image.

This is the pictogram for Denebola another star that is not as bright as Regulus in the constellation Leo and ...

This is the pictogram for Zosma another star of similar brightness to Denebola also in the constellation Leo.

The letter of the alphabet will give you the first letter of the stars proper name.
